

Saleh Abdullah Mutabbakani, a Saudi businessman and strategic consultant with four decades of practical experience and a lengthy record of serving client needs in technology, commerce, contracting, transportation, industry, defense, security, education, healthcare, and public relations.

A rare blend of business acumen and compassionate support of humanitarian interests across the social justice sphere.

He has provided services in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia to businesses large and small, and cultural entities, as well as to many clients around the globe. A public affairs advisor with a discrete specialty service for individuals and firms of high net worth and influence.

Beyond broad business experience, Mutabbakani also is an entrepreneur and author of two books for official use: “Saudi Arabia, Modern Economy Traditional Society” in English language, and “Saudi Arabia Get to Know “, in five languages including English. Additionally, he has published the first guide in nine languages for pilgrims performing Hajj; Published “SEARCH” the first bilingual magazine promoting Arab exports for Saudi Arabia & Arab world.

He was authorized by the German Federal Government to establish “German House” in Saudi Arabia. A project that gathers diversified German Industry and Commerce in Saudi, with official premises for German Trade Organizations and others.

Further he initiated and produced using Japanese technology, the first calculator to convert the solar and lunar calendars. Established a consortium of nine global companies to secure the largest mining project in Saudi Arabia, Al Jalamid Phosphate; created a consortium of global rail companies to establish the main goods railway network in Saudi Arabia; acted as advisor and facilitator for Cargolifter AG the German company created to offer logistical services through point-to point transport of heavy and out sized loads.

Saleh led a European consortium in the development and implementation of the 2000 Health Care Center Project, for Saudi citizens.

Engineered the creation of "Prince Mohammad Bin Fahd Program for Strategic Research & Studies at the University of Central Florida".

Teamed with US firms and organizations in the most sensitive areas, developing strategies in advocacy.

Achieved the endorsement of Saudi Health Authority for the first concept on global scale related to health care facilities outlet.

Founder of UKALAA Foundation

Chairman of the Global Board of Bosphorus Summit – Turkey.

Founder of THE COMMITMENT Organization

Founder of Intercultural Fellowship Organization (I F)

Advising various global companies and organizations, some mentioned underneath:

DB Schenker - Germany , SCF Group - Russia , UCF - USA, Cambridge Consulting - UK , MSG - Norway , HPC - Germany , Aptera - USA, Tonnies – Germany, J D – China, Orientations Events – Germany, Gezairi Group – Levent, GMM- Finland, Hughes Group - UK , B2W – Switzerland, MIG Material Innovative – Germany, Next Eco – Germany, Ehang – China.